Conclusion

Team building is hard! It is mostly our pride that makes it hard. We may have learnt to be humble before Jesus and listen to Him, but it is far more difficult to be humble before one another.

So a good and essential starting point for team building is to commit to Jesus, and to each other, that we will listen to Jesus, and to each other, and not justify ourselves to each other.

What does Jesus want to say to you?

T2 Motive to Lead

authority over them call themselves Benefactors. But you are not to be like that. Instead, the greatest among you should be like the youngest, and the one who rules like the one who serves."

Won't he rather say, 'Prepare my supper, get yourself ready and wait on me while I eat and drink; after that you may eat and drink'? Will he thank the servant because he did what he was told to do? So you also, when you have done everything you were told to do, should say, 'We are unworthy servants; we have only done our duty.' "

Conclusion

Teams are hard! And many teams are pointless! People like to create teams because it makes them feel important. But there has to be a compelling reason to form a team, and without that the team will be fruitless and fail.

The harvest that Jesus sends us into is that reason.

Do you truly believe Jesus is sending you into His harvest field?

Where is that harvest? Write down the places you think Jesus wants you to go.

Do you truly believe you need others alongside you?

You may need several teams. For each place you believe Jesus is calling you to, write down the names of the people you believe you need to be in team with.

Are there any existing teams that you need to withdraw from because they are pointless or fruitless, or Jesus is calling you out of them?

What changes are you going to make in obedience to Jesus?

T4 Authority in Agreement

This is the fourth training in the T-Path: Team Building

Matthew 18:19 Where two of you agree

Matthew 18:19 Jesus said “Truly I tell you that if two of you on earth agree about anything they ask for, it will be done for them by my Father in heaven.”
